15 November 2005

Excellency,

We have the honour to write to you in our respective capacities as Special Rapporteur on torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, Chairperson-Rapporteur of the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health, Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers, and Special Rapporteur on freedom of religion or belief.

We would like to thank you once again for the invitation extended to three of us on 27 October 2005 to visit the Department of Defense's detention facilities at Guantanamo Bay Naval Station, Cuba.

While we are looking forward to visiting the detention facility in Guantanamo Bay in accordance with the standard "Terms of Reference for Fact-finding missions by Special Procedures" as reflected in our letter dated 3 November 2005, we would very much appreciate your response as soon as possible and in any case not later than 17 November 2005. (U.S. Mission Note: They mean their October 31 letter. The November 3 letter notifies the U.S. of their intention to visit the United Kingdom to meet with former detainees. End note.)

Indeed, preparations for such a mission require addressing number of organizational and administrative aspects and given our respective schedules, including other commitments and obligations, we consider that in the absence of a response by 17 November, we will not be in a position to confirm the proposed visit of 6 December 2005.

Please accept, Dear Ambassador, the assurances of our highest consideration.

Manfred Nowak
Special Rapporteur on the question of torture

Leandro Despouy
Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers

Leila Zerrougui
Chairperson-Rapporteur of the Working Group on arbitrary detention

Paul Hunt
Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health

Asma Jahangir
Special Rapporteur on freedom of religion or belief

End text of letter.
